am C F G am F G
I want to go out west some time

am C F G am
And I Want to go out and see what's on your mind

F G F G am F G
Where the cold winds blow & the buffalo roam & the cowboys hang out

am C F G am F G
And I want to see your face under moon light

F G F G
am
Where the moon grows full & the bats hang out & your psychedelic mind goes wild

F G F G

am C F G am F G
And you can tell me why you've been so down and out

F G F G
When the job stresses out, and you're all in doubt, and the vicissitudes of life, have

am F G burned you out

am C F G am F G
And I want to go out for some peace of mind

F G F G
Where there's no bills to pay, where the drinks are free, and the wild west (break) will

am
set us free
